

Writing Assistance for Graduate Students

The LRC offers free writing consultations for graduate students. Our experienced tutors can advise you at any stage in your writing process:

- ❑ Search for and critique scholarly sources
- ❑ Organize your notes and plan your paper
- ❑ Revise drafts for clarity and conciseness
- ❑ Revise drafts for grammar and mechanical errors
- ❑ Incorporate sources more effectively into your text
- ❑ Use the correct documentation style.

If your paper is in APA, ask for an APA-style writing tutor to ensure that your tutor is knowledgeable in this format. Please call the LRC at 310-338-2847 to set up an appointment.

You may also contact the Writing Programs Coordinator directly for an appointment: 310-338-2726.
