Meaningful & Manageable Assessment: The Faculty Perspective

Thursday, April 14, 2011

12:15 – 1:30pm in CTE (University Hall 3030)

Hear your faculty colleagues tell the inside story on leading program assessment. Our faculty panel includes representatives from four dimensions of LMU's diverse campus:

- Vanessa Newell representing creative arts
- Mónica Cabrera representing liberal arts
- Suzanne Larson representing math and science
- Franca Dell'Olio representing graduate and professional studies

A few topics that this panel will address include:

- Perspectives on the added value of assessment
- Ways to make assessment relevant and meaningful to your work
- Strategies and challenges for implementing assessment activities

Our faculty panel will facilitate a conversation. Audience members are encouraged to bring their questions.

Lunch will be included, please RSVP to
