Dear Lisa,

I just wanted to share with you how incredible the President's Christmas reception was on Friday night. The cuisine was amazing! Everyone had such a good time and truly enjoyed every selection passed and set.

Thank you for taking the time to meet with us in determining the menu, and to Chef Pearl in creating an outstanding selection of delicious fare for an incredible Christmas party.

Warmest regards,

Judy

Hi Lisa –

I just wanted to let you know that our last few events have gone really well. Sodexo did our big seminar on Saturday morning, 11/17 with a full breakfast and the food was great and I really appreciated that you had a server stay there because she was able to get the few things that ran low. It made for a really professional event – and we had a fair number of prospective applicants there in addition to our students and alums and they all had really positive things to say.

Our Finals Fuel last week also went really well. The sandwiches were great.

Thanks for the attention to us through this semester. Have a great holiday!

Rachelle

Hi Ray,

we (the staff senate) were very happy with Sodexho's service at LMU's annual holiday party Tuesday night. The senate had a minimal budget to work with this year and Sodexho was wonderful in that they waived service and set-up fees. Most important however was that while the menu was quite traditional for the holidays it was absolutely delicious. As a Co-Chair on the committee that organized the event I wandered around the tables asking people if they were enjoying themselves. Repeatedly, people were impressed with and commented on the quality of the food.

Julio was exceptionally helpful and a delight to work with. When we needed more table linens he was quick to produce them for us and he oversaw the set-up of everything with great precision.

Overall, this years event was VERY successful and Sodexho was very instrumental in making it so.

Best,

Renée

On Saturday, December 15, a member of the LMU Board of Regents celebrated his golden wedding anniversary here in University Hall. Married 50 years ago in Sacred Heart Chapel, their expectations were very high for the food and service, but were confident LMU could meet the challenge based on past events they have attended here. I spoke with the couple today and they could not have been more pleased with the food and service on the occasion of their anniversary. The kitchen and service teams for the event worked so well together we served a perfect filet mignon to the guests, which is exactly what they wanted. This is to say nothing of the wonderful Sea Bass or the vegetarian entrée options...nor the fantastic starter salad or intermezzo of sorbet. Thanks to the efforts of your entire team, we were able to exceed the guests' wildest expectations and throw in a few surprises like the "Happy 50th Anniversary" painted-plate dessert. This event was an important one for our guests (and for LMU) and your team did an amazing job.
