Step-by-Step Survey Design: A Practical Guide to Designing Your Survey

Tuesday, October 8, 2013
12:15 pm – 1:15 pm in CTE
University Hall 3030

Thinking of conducting a survey? With careful planning and well-crafted design, a survey can be a powerful and insightful tool. But how do you get started?

This workshop will introduce you to the basic steps of designing a survey. You will also learn about survey ethics and the Institutional Review Board, survey resources available at LMU, and how to design your survey so that you can get the most out of your results.

Presented by:
Christine Chavez
Manager of Surveys and Evaluation

Lunch will be included, please RSVP to surveys@lmu.edu or Ext.86691
