

The Thomas and Dorothy Leavey Center for the Study of Los Angeles at Loyola Marymount University Urban Lecture Series

The Urban Lecture Series is an inter-departmental educational curriculum and forum that was established by The Leavey Center for the Study of Los Angeles 10 years ago.

- The annual 8-10 lecture Series brings together top government officials and community leaders for discussion, interaction with students and the public, and movement towards collective action.
- Each year pressing issues that are facing Los Angeles are discussed. Lectures are filmed live by LA TV 36 and aired shortly thereafter.
- Fernando Guerra, Ph.D., Leavey Center Director is the Series' moderator.

LMU STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF AND ALUMNI, AND THE LOS ANGELES COMMUNITY, ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE SERIES

2008 Urban Lecture Series at Loyola Marymount University: Topics/Speakers to Be Announced As Confirmed

February 7*

Post-Primary Election Results & Commentary

February 21

Scholars of LA

February 28*

Commentators of LA

March 13*

Public Safety and Public Health in LA

March 20*

Transportation in LA

March 27*

Environment in LA

April 3

Education, Workforce Preparation, and Training in LA

April 10

Economic Development and Housing in LA

5–7pm

*UHall 1000, Ahmanson Auditorium

St. Robert's Auditorium

2005 Urban Lecture Series Los Angeles City Mayoral Debate

For more information about The Leavey Center for the Study of Los Angeles please contact:

Fernando J. Guerra, Ph.D.: Leavey Center Director, 310-338-4565

Jennifer L. Magnabosco, Ph.D.: Leavey Center Associate Director, jmagnabo@lmu.edu; 310-338-1819

Lisa Esparza, B.A., '00: Leavey Center Director of Development, lesparza@lmu.edu; 310-338-5878