Please choose which PATH you most closely identify with to help us place you in a group that best suits your needs (adapted from James Martin, SJ's The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything):

- I believe in God and consider myself a religious person.
- I believe in God, participate in some religious services, but do not identify myself with one religion.
- I believe that God does not, may not or cannot exist—I do not participate in any organized religion.
- I participated in organized religion when I was younger, but then left for a time. I began to feel that something was missing from my life, and am now returning to religious practice.
- I am seeking a religious tradition that will “fit” my understanding of God, desires for community and personality.
- I feel confused about who God is, whether or not to participate in organized religion and what the purpose of my life is.

Please rank the following on a scale of 1-5 (from lowest to highest) according to what you are looking for:
