

Information Technology Policy

Loyola Marymount University

The Acceptable Use Policy for Information Technology regulates students' use of and access to the internet and LMU technology resources. The policy also governs the use of LMU-owned computers and software and is accessible via web browser from the Information Technology web site, <http://ITS.lmu.edu>.

For questions concerning the use of LMU information technology, please contact Information Services Help Desk at x87777.