LMU|LA Loyola Marymount University

The university's upper campus, the 100-acre Fritz B. Burns Campus, occupies a bluff facing the Santa Monica Mountains and overlooking Marina del Rey and the Pacific Ocean. Development of the 28-acre Leavey Campus is now complete and includes six residence halls, the Drollinger Parking Plaza and the Conrad N. Hilton Center for Business. The acquisition of University Hall and its 25 acres in January 2000 completes the campus. Loyola Law School is in downtown Los Angeles.

ACADEMIC BUILDINGS

Principal academic buildings include ③ St. Robert's Hall (also used for administration and student services), ⑤ University Hall, ②② Pereira Hall of Engineering, ②① Doolan Hall, ③⑨ Von der Ahe Communication Arts complex, ③⑨ Fritz B. Burns Fine Arts Center, ②④ Seaver Hall of Science, ②③ Foley Center and ④② the Conrad N. Hilton Center for Business.

ADMISSION

Located in ① Xavier Hall, the Office of Undergraduate Admission provides tours of the campus led by students, weekdays at 10 am and 1 pm year-round, and on Saturdays at 11 am during the academic year. Reservations are not necessary but are recommended. Call 310.338.2750 or email admissions@lmu.edu. Graduate Admission is located in University Hall, Suite 2525, Call 310.338.2721.

You are welcome to tour the campus on your own, too.

BOOKSTORE

Located in ⑤ the Malone Student Center, the Loyola Marymount University bookstore sells books (both academic and otherwise), magazines, school and residential supplies, cards, CDs, gifts, university apparel, snacks and software.

A store with apparel, gifts and sundries also exists in ⑤③ University Hall; this store does not sell textbooks.

CHAPELS

② Sacred Heart Chapel, at the bluff end of Alumni Mall, is the main worship center on campus and is the university's signature building. There are five other chapels on campus: Mary Chapel, at the rear of Sacred Heart Chapel; Huesman Chapel, in ④② Huesman Hall; Leavey Chapel, in ⑤⑥ the Leavey Center; Marymount Chapel, in the Marymount Institute in ⑤③ University Hall; and the chapel in the Jesuit Community residence.

DINING FACILITIES/SNACKS

There are two main dining facilities on campus: in ⑤ the Malone Student Center and in ⑤③ University Hall.

The Malone Student Center houses the Lair Marketplace and adjoining Ahmanson Dining Commons on the second floor; the Lion's Den, featuring various coffee products and light snacks, is on the first floor.

In University Hall, the Roski Dining Room is on the first floor, northwest corner.

In addition to the above areas, snacks are also available at an outdoor coffee cart on Alumni Mall near the front of ②③ the Foley

Center; at Jamba Juice (a fruit juice retailer) at the Malone Student Center (facing South); at the two university bookstores; at Iggy's Diner in ⑤⑤ McKay Hall; at Pete's Arena, a pizza café in ⑩ Del Rey Towers; and at the C-Lion convenience store in ⑤⑥ Leavey 6 Apartments.

RESIDENCE HALLS

The University has 12 residence halls: ⑦ Whelan, ⑧ Desmond, ⑨ Rosecrans, ⑩ Del Rey North and South, ④② Huesman, ⑬ Doheny, ⑭ Sullivan, ⑤⑤ McKay, ⑤⑥ Leavey, ④④ McCarthy and ④⑤ Rains

The university also has six apartment complexes: ④② Hannon, ③④ Tenderich, ④⑦ O'Malley, ④⑧ Leavey 4, ④⑨ Leavey 5 and ⑤⑥ Leavey 6.

STUDENT CENTER

⑤ The Malone Student Center houses dining facilities, a coffee bar that also sells soft drinks and light snacks, a travel center, the bookstore, an ATM, Campus Ministry, lounges and other facilities. It is also home to many of Loyola Marymount's clubs, the student government offices, KXLU, and other student activities.

PERFORMANCE SPACES

The campus boasts several excellent performance spaces: ② Sacred Heart Chapel (sacred music and theatre), ④ St. Robert's Auditorium (general use), ⑩ North Hall (Del Rey Theatre for intimate student theatrical performances), ②③ Foley Center (Strub Theatre, home of the LMU theatre department), ②⑤ Gersten Pavilion (intercollegiate athletics, inaugurations and other major university events), ③⑨ Hannon Loft (casual music and theatre performances) and ③⑨ Burns Fine Arts Center (music and other events in Murphy Recital Hall).
